PUBLIC CAMPUS

An international and home-grown who's who of urban artists is turning Curtin University's campus into canvas from April 4-10 as part of PUBLIC2016, FORM's annual festival of art, urban activation and creative conversation.

PUBLIC Campus offers the perfect opportunity for a sticky-beak at the best in contemporary street art action, all within a walkable area: live, on-site, and open-air.

Look out for the talent giving 'extramural' a new meaning to some of Curtin's most prominent buildings. From Perth, Amok Island, Chris Nixon, Hayley Welsh, Jae Criddle, Jessee Lee Johns, Kyle Hughes-Odgers, Liam Dee, and Stormie Mills. From the rest of the world, Add Fuel (Portugal), Borondo (Spain), Edoardo Tresoldi (Italy), HENSE (USA), Karim Jabbari (Tunisia), Millo (Italy), Rustam Qbic (Russia), and Tellas (Italy).

In addition to the artworks taking shape on the buildings, there are guided artwork tours and artist speaker events.

And don't forget to join us for the PUBLIC Campus wrap party on Saturday 9 April, 6-11pm at Lower Henderson.

ABOUT FORM

FORM is an independent cultural organisation working to build a state of creativity in Western Australia. From making a neighbourhood feel welcoming and distinctive to finding our own aptitude and ambitions, creativity allows us to demand more of our environments, communities, each other, and ourselves. That's why FORM devises programs like PUBLIC: simply, creativity for the public good.
